GILLIAN THORPE

CHARITY MANAGEMENT LEAD

Gillian joined Good Fundraising with extensive experience in financial services and a strong passion for supporting charities to operate effectively and sustainably. For the past five years, she has managed a local charity, overseeing finances and budgets, supporting fundraising activity and managing the increasing administrative and compliance demands that come with a successful and growing Trust.

Gillian is an experienced bid writer who manages specific fundraising campaigns and leads on all administration for the Trust, including funding requests, grant monitoring and reporting. She is also responsible for marketing and communications activity, ensuring messaging is clear, consistent and effective. Gillian maintains all governance and policy requirements, keeping the Trust fully up to date, and is an experienced trainer, delivering training at different levels to diverse groups. Outside of work, Gillian enjoys visiting heritage sites across the country with her family and fundraises for a local football team.
